

Multiage Loop Grades 3-4-5

Subject Area	Year One
Reading/Writing	The student <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *uses decoding & comprehension strategies to read independently *reads for a variety of purposes *follows a schedule to complete assignments individually and cooperatively *uses the writing process to write one/two paragraphs with supporting details *writes legibly in both cursive and manuscript
Listening/Speaking	The student <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *paraphrases information from oral sources *begins to analyze/evaluate speaker intent *identifies speaker's mood and intent *reports current events and original work *relates inferences or draw conclusions based on an oral report *orally summarizes information
Math	Students would be enrolled in the appropriate grade level math books. There is always room for enrichment and application of the studied curriculum.
Science	Life Science-Studies include cells as the basic building blocks of life and the eight major systems of the human body. Physical Science-Studies include the characteristics of matter, light, and sound. Earth Science-Studies include the ever-changing features of Earth's surface and the unique properties, forces and ecosystems of the oceans.
Social Studies	This course is an overview of people, issues and events that have shaped the history of the United States. Units include early explorers through the Civil War and Reconstruction. Students will learn the structure of the U.S. government.
Music	Music Theory, Mastery of Singing Skills including memorization of classic American literature, composition and composer studies, and appreciation of a variety of musical styles are explored.
Art	Basic study of different art techniques, styles, works, types and artists will be explored
PE	This level applies skills to game situations involving rules, strategies, and competition dynamics. Physical Activities not normally explored such as curling, archery, golf, and bowling, etc. will be explored. Students also learn to make knowledgeable personal choices toward becoming healthy, active individuals.